AGRICULTURE

Register for online agriculture classes NOW!

Interested in a career in Agriculture? You can start taking classes now! SENCAP will now offer online dual credit Agriculture courses to high school students.

These classes apply toward an Associate of Applied Science degree in Agriculture Business & Management Technology at Southeast Community College.

Many classes are transferable to other two- and four-year institutions. It is the student's responsibility to check with the receiving institution to confirm which courses transfer. Visit our transfer guide for more information. www.southeast.edu/transfer-information

Students who participate in SENCAP student will receive half of their tuition paid for by Southeast Community College.

To find out if your high school participates in SENCAP, visit us online at www.southeast.edu/sencap and click on participating schools.

Scholarships

Learn to Dream Scholarship

- The LTD Scholarship is available to high school students who participate in the DC Advantage program. Students who qualify for free or reduced-price lunch are eligible for the scholarship. Please ask your high school counselor for more information and to see if you are eligible.
- Learn to Dream pays for up to 45 quarter credit hours (approximately $2,700 of tuition) at Southeast Community College.
- Contact the Learn to Dream Office at 402-437-2606, or visit the SCC website for an application.
