WHAT'S UP!?!....AT WAHOO MIDDLE SCHOOL

Yellow Ribbon Campaign

Information from Kearsten Peterson

The Wahoo Middle School Student Council introduced the "Yellow Ribbon Project" the week of March 25-29 to students and staff. The Student Council and Mrs. Harris created ribbons to give out to the entire Middle School so that every student and staff member received a ribbon. The "Yellow Ribbon Project" was started by a family who tragically lost their son to suicide. The ribbons will be used by showing them on a backpack, shoe, or clothing, which indicates a safe person to talk to, and someone to go to if help is needed. The other way it works is simple, if you are struggling with a mental illness such as depression, suicidal thoughts, stress, or just having a rough day and need someone's help, you give your ribbon to someone who has a ribbon showing and they will get you the help you need. The help can come in many different ways such as getting the person to a trusted adult, sitting down with that person and talking, or talking to a guidance counselor. We would really appreciate the support from everyone, so please help support the Yellow Ribbon Project at Wahoo Middle School.
