WHAT'S UP!?!....AT WAHOO MIDDLE SCHOOL

StuCo Campaigning Week

The race for Student Council Office was alive and well throughout the school.

Student Council campaigning took place this last week as students showed Wahoo Middle School why they should be in office.

While running for any type of office can be intimidating for anyone, students did a great job of explaining to their peers why they should be elected. Speeches were both positive and realistic with candidates pleading their cases to the student body.

While student elections in all schools can sometimes become a popularity contest, it's most likely not the intention of most students. All of the Wahoo Middle School Candidates ran a positive and well-planned campaign and these students definitely demonstrated that they were eager to stand up for their classmates and do the job to the best of their abilities.

Creative posters filled the hallways and commons at Wahoo Middle School as students made their case for office.

Be kind & stop bullying!!

Being kind is not the only mission this school year at Wahoo Middle School. Staff and students are also continually emphasizing and reviewing bullying. Unfortunately, bullying is occurring all across schools in the state of Nebraska and throughout the country. Our school and staff are committed to informing our students about acts of bullying that sometimes occurs in schools and ways to handle and report these acts. Educating students about this issue is extremely important to our school culture at Wahoo Middle School. We are committed to stopping bullying period... and be kind.

Please contact Mr. Kaminski if you have any questions or concerns with regards to bullying.

THANK YOU Middle School PTO!!

We would like to thank the Wahoo Middle School PTO for all of their support and contributions to students and staff. The Middle School PTO recently contributed funds towards new MS Commons furniture, classroom charging stations, and "Be Awesome" t-shirts for students and staff.

Please join the Middle School PTO!! The next PTO meeting is scheduled for Monday October 8th @ 7:00 PM at Wahoo Middle School.
